

Bournda EEC Future Leaders ENVIRONMENT AWARD 2017

The Bournda EEC Future Leaders Environment Award recognises Year 12 students who have shown strong environmental leadership and initiative.

NSW secondary schools are invited to nominate Year 12 students for the Award.

PRIZE

In 2017, the prize money of $1000 will be shared between two recipients, one male and one female.

NOMINATIONS

Nominations should include detailed information about the student's environmental leadership activities. This should be in the form of a letter on school letterhead including a reference.

Please send all nominations by Friday 30th June 2017
– Electronically: bournda-e.school@det.nsw.edu.au

“ The Future Leaders Environment Award truly changed my life and gave me opportunities that I never dreamed of...I have continued my passion for caring for our environment/people and inspiring others to become environmental ambassadors and leaders themselves. ”

(previous winner of a Future Leaders Environment Award Award).

The Bournda EEC Future Leaders award has been made possible through the generosity of Future Leaders, a philanthropic initiative about leadership and our future. It seeks to involve, inform and inspire.
